

of the exhibition games. Against Texas clubs in two games he knocked six hits, and three of them were stinging liners for extra bases. Hap was a star in 1916, but the experience he gained last season should make him an even better performer in the coming season.

Fort Worth downed the seconds, the first game a yannigan Hose squad has dropped in two years. Norman, a local boy, was hit hard by the minor leaguers and also had a wild streak.

In a game at Hot Springs, Ark., Brooklyn beat the Boston Red Sox, 7 to 2, slammimg Carl Maya. Walker of Boston hit a homer, and Fabrique, a rookie shortstop, poled four hits for the Dodgers.

Swedish Americans defeated the Bricklayers' soccer team, 4 to 3, in a sensational game at Brickies' field. Brickies scored three times in last 15 minutes of play, but were unable to put over the tying goal.

Charley Langmaier gathered the coin in the Union Printers' bowling tourney at the Randolph alleys. He was high in the all-events, knocked 578 for second prize in the singles, and teamed with Andy Berman for second place in the doubles with 1,111 pins. Eddie Pierce was high in singles with 582, including a 244 score, and Haynes and Breece were high in doubles with 1,154.

Ben and Nick Budinger of Chicago, who toppled 1,312 pins in the A. B. C. bowling tournament at Grand Rapids Saturday night for a new doubles record, saw their glory fade in short order before an attack by Frank McCaughan and Henry Beachey of Indianapolis, who raised the record to 1,314. High scores

The White Sox in military drill, using ball bats as rifles. Leading the squad is Eddie Collins, the star second baseman. Jim Scott is on the left end.